

DEATH IN FALL DOWN SHAFT.

Youth Plunges Seven Stories in Cold Storage Plant.

Philadelphia, June 23.—Falling from a height of seven floors down an elevator shaft yesterday, John Johnson, 21 years old, of No. 352 North Sartin street, was instantly killed. The young man was employed by the Industrial Cold Storage & Warehouse Company, at American and Berks street, and in some manner yet unexplained slipped into the shaft. Fellow workmen who heard the man's screams as he plunged down hurried to the bottom of the pit and found him mangled almost beyond recognition.

NO MERCY FOR BLIND TIGERS.

Justice Crutchfield Imposes Heavy Sentences Upon Two Men.

Richmond, June 23.—Heavy punishment was meted out yesterday in the police court to two operators of blind tigers who were arrested Sunday. In each case a fine of $100 was imposed, in addition, to sixty days and $500 security for twelve months.

Christo Constantines, a Greek though he admitted dispensing refreshments on the Sabbath Day, claimed that they were of the non-intoxicating variety. A bottle labeled in Greek letters, which was produced as Exhibit 2, contained whisky, and a mean brand at that, according to the testimony of a Syrian connoisseur who was pressed into service as a witness.

Justice Crutchfield, after sniffing the stuff, also declared it to be booze.

STORMS IN OHIO.

Score. Hurt in Terrible Wind—Hail Destroys Crops—Lightning Starts Destructive Fires.

Columbus, Ohio, June 23.—Various kinds of storms broke over central Ohio yesterday, injuring a score of persons and damaging thousands of dollars' worth of property. Rain fell in some sections, breaking a drought which had threatened growing crops, but in others the precipitation was accompanied by terrific winds and lightning. In the western part of the state crops suffered from a heavy hailstorm.

A tornado passed through Shelby county, working havoc in its path and terrorizing the citizens of Quincy, a village of 500 population, many of whom had narrow escapes from death. Several buildings, including a church, were destroyed, trees were uprooted, and telephone and telegraph service demoralized. The tornado was followed by a violent hailstorm.

Lightning set fire to two 800-barrel oil tanks near Newark and a spectacular blaze resulted. Many farm buildings, ignited by lightning, also were reported burned.

BOAT LYING BOTTOM UP
Port Huron, Mich., June 23.—D. R. Lynn, a marine man of this city, has received an apparently authentic report that the overturned hull of one of the steamers which floundered in the great storm of November 9, 1913, has been located a short distance from Goderich, Ontario, in Lake Huron. The boat is lying bottom up, at what is known as Twelve Fathom Shoal.

It is thought the wreck may be that of the Regina or the Wexford, bodies and wreckage from both these steamers having been washed ashore near that point.

Fishermen have reported that in calm weather they have been able to stand on the boat's bottom. It is understood here an investigation party has been sent to the place by Canadian marine men.

DEATH OF MRS. WESTINGHOUSE

Mrs. Westinghouse, who was a native of Roxbury, N. Y., had residences in Pittsburgh and Washington, in addition to her summer home here.

M. on Tuesday, June 23rd 1914, for the purpose of voting upon a resolution of the Board of Directors passed at the meeting of the same held May 4th 1914, to the effect that $152,400 of the capital stock of the corporation be retired, and that the capital stock of the Company be reduced from $550,000 to $397,600.

MEETS HORRIBLE DEATH.

Frank Panney, of Near Sunnyside, Cut in Two at Sawmill.

Whitehorse, Va., June 23.—A fatal accident occurred near Sunnyside a few days ago when Mr. Frank Panney met a tragic end.

If appears that Mr. Panney was operating a sawmill in some way got one of his hands caught in the boards of a log as it passed on a trolley leading from the mill. In trying to extricate his hand his body was drawn or jerked right across the circular saw, driven by a 12 horse power engine, and he was literally cut in twain between the thighs and ribs. He soon died.

Mr. Panney came to America some fourteen years ago from Calabria, Italy.

Drought in Culpeper.

Culpeper, Va., June 23.—The drought which continues unbroken throughout this county has reached serious proportions, as already the pastures have become alarmingly short, and the hay crop, usually a most important one throughout this section, is practically ruined. Corn gives prospects of a half crop, and the wheat harvest is light. Gardens are now drying up and unless the rains come very soon will be past help for this season. The fruit growers are also complaining.

Woman Killed by Lightning.

Luray, Va., June 23.—An electrical storm of unusual violence passed over Page county yesterday, breaking the drought but doing much damage. In Springfield district, in the northern part of the county, crops were destroyed by hail. In Luray houses were removed from their foundations. Mrs. Thomas Young, of Rileyville, 10 miles north of this town, was killed by lightning and several others sustained shocks.

Man Is Drowned.

Petersburg, Va., June 23.—A telegram was received by Secretary P. B. Lanier, of Petersburg Lodge, Loyal Order of Moose, announcing the death by drowning of Mr. George E. Engram, of this city. Mr. Engram was about 28 years of age, and for the past two years had been employed by the Stockell-Myers Hardware Company, of this city.

STUDENT IS KILLED

Struck by Lightning While at Work in Field.

Norfolk, Va., June 23.—Two deaths from lightning occurred during a severe electric storm which swept over this section yesterday afternoon. W. R. Peter, 19 years old, a student of Clemson College, S. C., was struck and instantly killed on the Cumberland farm, in Norfolk County. A negro, whose name could not be learned, who was at work 400 feet from where Mr. Peter stood was killed.

ENGINE EXPLODES; TWO DEAD.

N. and W. Engineer and Fireman Killed in Accident.

Roanoke, Va., June 23.—Norfolk and Western engine 1,300 blew up yesterday afternoon going down the mountain between Shawsville and Christiansburg and Engineer J. L. Dent, of Bluefield, and Fireman B. Graddock, of this city, were killed.

The grade at the point of the accident is one of the steepest on the road. No one else was injured. The train was made up of empty coal gondolas. The cause of the wreck has not been determined, although it is thought the water was low in the boiler.
